Designer Glass

One of the most versatile materials used in homes today is glass. Whether wonderfully bold or subtly muted, glass can migrate from traditional décor to a fresh urban style. Discover with Stegbar a truly distinctive way of using glass, adding that designer touch to any home.

Coloured Glass Panels

Discover the intrinsic beauty of coloured glass and its almost limitless applications. Like no other surface, the clean lines and brilliant high gloss finish is not only easy to clean it's simply stunning. Be inspired by the amazing versatility and stylish touch coloured glass can bring.

Stegbar coloured glass panels can be used just about anywhere that a tough, flat, high gloss surface is required. As cupboard doors, flooring, steps, balustrades, shelves, walls, benchtops or internal doors – coloured glass panels add a vibrancy of life and colour to any room.

Showerscreens

More than merely functional, a bathroom should be beautiful, and the shower screen is the centrepiece of every beautiful bathroom. Whether it blends in to be invisible, or stands out as a dramatic feature, a frameless shower screen utilises all the qualities of glass.

Premium frameless showerscreens

Using 8mm–12mm thick glass for your frameless showerscreen means that wider, taller, bigger configurations are possible giving you the ultimate in luxury and style.

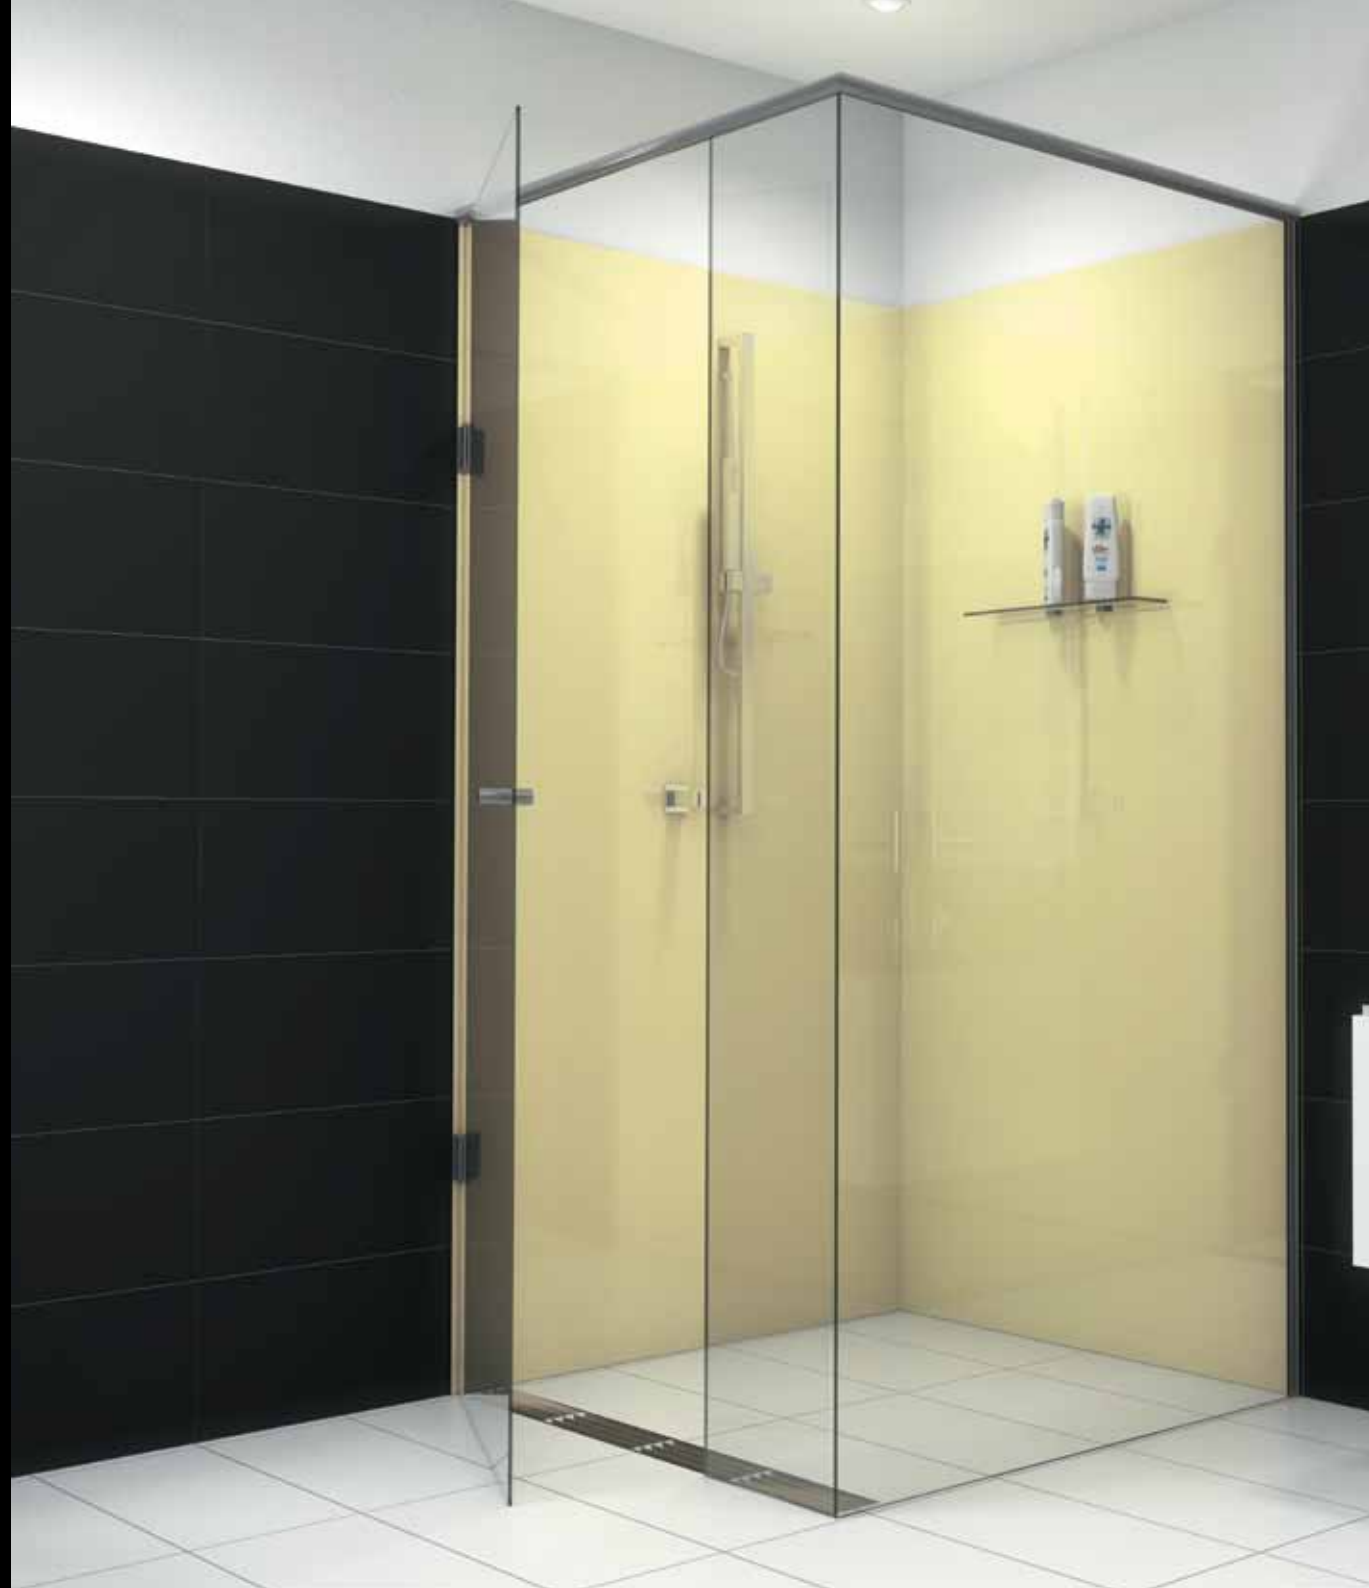

Frameless showerscreens

Fine lines, slight furnishings and subtle tones are the hallmarks of contemporary bathrooms. Using 6mm thick glass for your frameless showerscreen makes your bathroom functional yet strikingly elegant.

Semi-frameless showerscreens

Engineered to be safe and stylish, a semi-frameless showerscreen utilises a slim aluminium perimeter frame, combined with a frameless door and pivot system constructed from strong die cast metal.

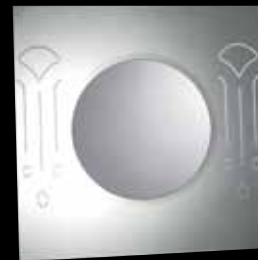

Mirrors

A mirror can be both functional and a design feature in any room or space in your home. Whether they are a striking feature or a subtle element, mirrors will make any room appear more spacious.

Custom Mirrors

Design your own mirror that is uniquely one of a kind by shape, V-Groove pattern or combined with a coloured glass panel. Stegbar custom mirrors – think outside the square.
