ALUMINIUM

IT HAS TO BE SITELINE

When it comes to completely transforming your home it has to be Siteline. Siteline windows and doors feature the unique combination of weatherproof aluminium on the outside and warm timber on the inside.

It's the smart choice in windows and doors. Giving you the benefits of both timber and aluminium, all rolled into one innovative package.

From the inner, you live with peace, warmth, energy efficiency and beauty of timber. To the outer, you have the peace of mind, durability and practicality of aluminium. Siteline gives you the best of both worlds. And now you have even greater choice with Siteline windows and doors available in Western Red Cedar and Auralast Solid Timber.
